TIED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tied out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how soon her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But if another thing for the sick woman to feel tied out. Best only come to increase her suffering. She feels steadily the aching back and throbbing nerves. Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswald, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and continued so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. Gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

SOFTNESS OF SEALS KIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpelide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Sealskin scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpelide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Great Britain's Alleged Offer.

The Paris newspapers are adding new phases to the disclosures concerning the alleged revelations of Great Britain's offer of naval and military aid to France, if Germany assumed a belligerent attitude over Morocco.

The Figaro gives a detailed version even more sensational than the previous alleged disclosures of the Matin. It says that the previous report of Great Britain offering to mobilize her navy and land British troops in Germany is not correct, but that the actual occurrence was as follows:

Before the Moroccan crisis became acute the British government made three distinct overtures to learn if France was disposed to conclude a treaty of defensive alliance. France declined to consider the question. Later, when the Moroccan crisis became acute, Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador to Great Britain, reopened the question and obtained a verbal assurance from Foreign Secretary Lansdowne in the event of hostilities.

M. Cambon was thereupon able to announce to M. Delcasse (who was then foreign minister) that if a case coming within a treaty was desired, Great Britain would reiterate her assurance in writing. The German Ambassador in London, Count Wolff-Metternich, learned of these assurances and informed Berlin. Emperor William decided on a counter move and made Italy the medium of its execution. He informed Italy that any treaty whereby Great Britain gave France military support relative to Morocco would constitute a casus belli.

The Figaro asserts that this amounted to an indirect ultimatum and that the Italian Government communicated the situation to M. Barrere, the French Ambassador to Italy, who informed Paris, June 4. Immediately thereafter M. Delcasse resigned (June 6) as a result of a violent scene in a Cabinet council. During this council M. Delcasse is alleged to have said: "I have a formal assurance of Great Britain's support." Premier Rouvier is represented as answering:

"And I have M. Barrere's telegram proving that this means war if we continue your policy. I refuse to endorse what you seem to treat so lightly."

The other ministers are said to have upheld M. Rouvier, whereupon M. Delcasse resigned.

The foregoing version is chiefly important in the allegation that Great Britain sought for and promised a military defensive alliance against Germany.

Later a semi-official note was issued saying that the "published reports upon the incidents accompanying the resignation of M. Delcasse, and notably the details regarding the Cabinet council preceding his resignation are incorrect."

The issuance of this denial steadied prices on the Bourse, which showed uneasiness over the agitation.

The Foreign Office has received from the Spanish government its official acceptance of the proposition that Algiers, near Gibraltar, be used as the place for the Moroccan conference.

With reference to the Paris Matin's alleged disclosures, it is authoritatively stated that the British government does not intend to issue a formal statement on the subject, but it can be said that the government has communicated to Germany a statement to the effect that Great Britain did not offer to assist France in the event of an attack by Germany, and that France did not ask for such assistance.

The Cologne Gazette prints another inspired dispatch from Berlin apropos of the Figaro's additions to the Matin's story, which can be interpreted only as a plain hint to the British government to explain its role in the matter.

The dispatch notes that while the Matin's versions only gave ground for the assumption that the suggested alliance of France and Great Britain against Germany had an official character, the Figaro's version confirms this assumption by giving the names of parties, and says that this makes the case against M. Delcasse all the stronger. The mention of the name of Lord Lansdowne, the British Foreign Secretary, in connection with the matter sheds upon the story an embarrassing light for Great Britain, according to the dispatch, which says:

"It is exceedingly repugnant to us to regard British statesmen like Premier Balfour and Foreign Minister Lansdowne as capable of such a game, but if such revelations are repeated and remain uncontradicted one cannot avoid growing more and more skeptical about the matter. The question arises as to how it was possible that French statesmen, who undoubtedly are men to be taken seriously, could have believed that there was an offer of a British alliance if no adequate basis existed for such an exceedingly serious matter."

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullahoma, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Three for the Giants.

Three-fourths of the world's championship at baseball is now in the grasp of the New Yorks. They defeated the Philadelphia Americans, 1 to 0, at the Polo Grounds, New York, yesterday in the fourth game of the series. Every game of the world's series so far has been a whitewash one way or the other. In no contest has both teams scored. Yesterday the New Yorks coated the Athletics with calumet for the third time. As the New Yorks have won three games out of four, the Athletics must win the next three straight to win the series. The unexpected happens sometimes in baseball, but to win three straight the Athletics have an undertaking that makes Hercules' Augean stables clean-up a perfect trifle in comparison. McGinnity was at the pinnacle of his prowess on an occasion that was the most dramatic of his long diamond career. His mind was concentrated on his work; he studied every attitude of the opposing batsmen, and rushed the ball through with a studied purpose in every pitch and with results that showed that he knew what to give the different Philadelphia batters. His arm worked freely, and he pitched a good many balls, but the more he used the less the visitors were able to get hold of them.

A Daredevil Ride
often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothers and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
